CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

“Thank you thank you!!! Jose, you have been an amazing partner. Each and every executive that has been coached by you in our company has really done great strides in their speech deliveries. What I really appreciated is that you customize your coaching and kept them authentic all the way! Welcome to the tribe and see you very soon for more adventures. 🚀”

Cecilia Taieb – Global Director of Communications – Seat & Cupra

“Jose delivered (and continues to do so) Resilience and Wellbeing workshops for our NHS customers. His skill base extends a lot further than the above. He is able to deliver face to face and across virtual platforms, bringing energy, purpose and in the resilience workshop-practical tactics that work and can be applied. Feedback has been superb-and led to application and outcomes. I was fortunate to be present and part of a Wellbeing workshop in person, superb session for a group of disease area leading NHS customers. Feedback was outstanding. I would imagine Jose would also deliver to executive groups, team building projects and one to one effectiveness jobs. Top recommendation, without hesitation.”

David Tainton – National Key Account Manager – Chiesi Group

“Jose’s engaging style of provocative coaching ensured our group were all put outside of our comfort zones, throughout the 2 days, in order to better understand ourselves and what holds us back, in becoming better leaders and managers, that we aspire to be. I’ve never been a fan of role play during training courses, however Jose really did ensure this became an informative and useful addition to the practical frameworks and their application. Jose fostered an interactive group environment during the sessions, ensuring all participants contributed and allowed us to learn from each other. It was fantastic to see the journey my colleagues went on during the 2 days and we as a business will be stronger from having this investment in ourselves. I’m really looking forward to continuing to work with Jose on our 1 on 1 coaching sessions, building upon the knowledge gained. Thanks again Jose!”

James Stewart – Fleet Sales Director – DAF Trucks

“Jose has the unique ability to bring energy to any room he walks into. He was a fantastic host for the first ever TEDxSheffield event. His energy brought an element of excitement to the 'challenged minds and empowered perspectives' theme. I especially enjoyed his additional commentary which allowed for more insight into the speakers' topic. The energy he has is like a fever and one that everyone should experience!”
